Brandreth's Pills Have Been Long Used, and are yet increasing the sphere of their usefulness. I saw a young man to-day that they had cured of a white swelling if the hure, and when swerpthing had failed. The doctors said sothing would save his life but amputation. He is now in excellent leadth. They purify the blood, and by his one quality they are the best medicine to be used in all cases of pain or weakness, all depending for their continuance on impure blood. A genileman called on me lately, and stated they cured him of a drospy when he was given up to die by his physicians. Let the sick use them. Some important facts relative to their curative qualities will be shortly published. Sold at 25 cents, at 45 Canal street, Brandreth Building.
